

Financial Literacy

Title	Duration (minutes)	Author	Course Description
• Finance for Non-Finance Professionals	70	ISEAZY SKILLS	In this course, you'll learn the essentials to change your lifestyle and learn new habits and tips to manage both your personal and professional finances and facilitate the acquisition of basic knowledge about economic concepts and financial statements that will help you to start up or run your business in an optimal way.
• Finance for Non-Financial Managers	15	The Access Group	This module covers the basic elements of an organization's accounts, including how trading activity is recorded on the Profit and Loss Statement, adjusted in the Cash Flow Statement, and reflected on the Balance Sheet.
• Financial Wellbeing	15	The Access Group	Did you know that the state of your finances has a direct impact on your wellbeing? This module explores ways to look after your finances, the impact of financial difficulty and the benefits of a healthy relationship with money on our overall wellbeing.
• Effective Budget Management	15	The Access Group	This course demystifies the importance of budget management at work. It covers the basics of budget management for business leaders as well as team or project managers including types of budgets, necessary steps for budgeting and practical tips for effective budget management.
• Credit Cards	45	Intuition Know-How	This course covers the revenue streams from credit cards, how they are designed, and marketed to different user groups in an increasingly electronic payment market.
• Insurance	75	Intuition Know-How	This course explores the risks insurance companies cover and the challenges they face in providing protection to individuals and businesses.
• Pensions and Retirement	75	Intuition Know-How	This course offers an overview of the retirement industry, highlighting challenges and strategies to address issues with aging populations and strained retirement systems.
• The Balance Sheet	20	Skilla	This course teaches you how to interpret financial statements, understand their importance, and recognize their key components.
• The Profit and Loss Account	27	Skilla	This course teaches you how to analyze and interpret a company's profit and loss account, understand revenue development, costs, and profitability.
• Wealth Management	60	Intuition Know-How	This course covers private banking and wealth management concepts, including key activities, business types, fee structures, revenue models, and industry trends.